

Al Maghrar „From Sand to Rock“, Bernd Arnold, Egbert Doezkal, 31/15 Dezember 2009

Location: The Domes of Al Maghrar (see Tony Howard: Ticks & Climbs in Wadi Rum, 1994, page 178)

The route is on the ~~middle~~ East side of the Dome, which lies east of the Dome 1232 and north of Dome 1240; the route is on the black wall to the right of a blunt edge; the wall is about 120 m high; it can be seen when driving along the west side of Jebel Khazali - in the far distance (about 20 km from Wadi Rum Village)

How to find the Dome/How to get there: Contact → Hassan Odeh +962 (0) 777 269 256 (mobile)
Ahayak Aouda +962 (0) 795 834 736 (mobile)

Character of the route: fully equipped (bolted) sports climb up the black wall; on solid rock^①, which is among the best, Wadi Rum has to offer; in a most beautiful and remote part of the desert

① with the exception of the first 6 m, which are well protected

Gear: 60 m rope sufficient, 10 quickdraws, (belays are on the bolts with abseil carabiner); some small wires/rocks and kevlar slings optional

Descent: abseil down the route

The top of this dome can also be reached by ^{easily} scrambling up its west face/side along gullies and terraces, marked by cairns, ~ 30/45 min.
